

The river Corb's valley

The river Corb goes across La Conca de Barberà, L'Urgell and Les Garrigues counties creating a very interesting natural space. Several villages were established along side the valley of the river Corb, standing out among all of them Llorac, Vallfogona de Riuorb, Guimerà, Ciutadilla, San Martí, Maldà and Belianes. It is worth to mention the river Corb's shades which are included in a natural interest plan for the environmental importance of the area.

VALLFOGONA'S SPA

The recovery of the spas of Vallfogona de Riuorb is one of the area's most important tourist projects.

THE RIVER CORB'S VALLEY

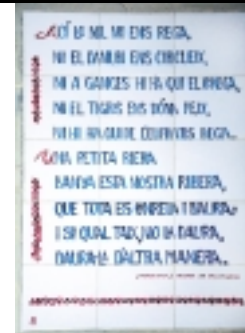

LA BOVERA (GUIMERA)

Far away you can already distinguish the Cistercian style of the sanctuary of the Mare de Déu de la Bovera, which dates from the 12th century. Beneath the church we find the hermit's house, in which still remains part of the cloister of the old convent of the Cister's nuns.

VALLFOGONA'S GOVERNING

Francesc Vicent Garcia, all around known as the Vallfogona's governing, is one of the most important poets of the 15th century. Vallfogona de Riuorb honours him every day having some of his poems written on ceramic panels all over the village; a curious artistic representation. To have a walk all around is getting into in the art of the poetry. The hotels and spa offer along side the river Corb, has made Vallfogona to be known all over as a health region.

SANT MARTÍ DE MALDÀ

A 417 m high small ridge of mountains is the basis where the district of Sant Martí de Maldà is placed. The Baroque, the Romanesque and the 19th century styles, can be seen all together in several worthwhile monuments as the parochial church, the church of St. Roc, the Castle's chapel o Cal Miqueló.

THE CHEESE OF L'ALBIÓ

Following the ceremony which settles the elaboration of an excellent handmade product, in the hamlet of L'Albió, which belongs to the district of Llorac, the best cheeses of the county are made.

GUIMERA

The fact of being placed stepped over the river Corb, gives the medieval district of Guimerà a particular physiognomy. It was declared a historic and artistic complex in 1975. Walking around its streets and enjoying its medieval festival is a privileged chance we cannot miss out. We can visit the church, the tower and the museum and taste the typical medieval meals.
